

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Happy Holidays and the best New Year ever to you all!

First, I would like to thank the three retiring Board members, Ron Sivers, Kevin Hertig and Fred Van Horn. Having worked with them, I assure you the membership got their money's worth and more. Thanks, guys.

Welcome to our new Board members, Russ Taggard, Arnold Swanson and Ernie Barrows. Congratulations to the new officers, Vice President Jim Wakefield, Secretary Larry Perkins, and Treasurer Dick Hinton.

We have a wonderful Club and I'm sure this Board will strive hard to keep it that way. We have been given several major areas of concern to deal with this year. They will be addressed.

Harry Dichter

SPRING HANDICAP TOURNAMENT 1992

This is a two-man partnership tournament with no more than a ten stroke difference in the two handicaps. You may play with a partner whose handicap is more than ten strokes higher or lower than yours BUT the team can use only a ten stroke spread.

APRIL 28th - TWO MAN BEST BALL

Each player plays his own ball and subtracts handicap strokes where they fall. The best score for each hole is recorded. The total is the team best ball.

MAY 5 - CHAPMAN

A and B each tee off. A then hits B's ball and B hits A's. Then choose which ball to play out the hole -- each hitting every other shot. If you whiff, it will then be your partners turn to hit. Even a two inch putt must be stroked by which-ever partners turn it is. Putt everything out! Record team score for each hole. At the end of play add both handicaps and divide by two. Subtract that score from total score.

Example: A's Handicap 30

B's Handicap  $\frac{24}{54}$  divide by 2 = 27

Teams total play score 100

-27

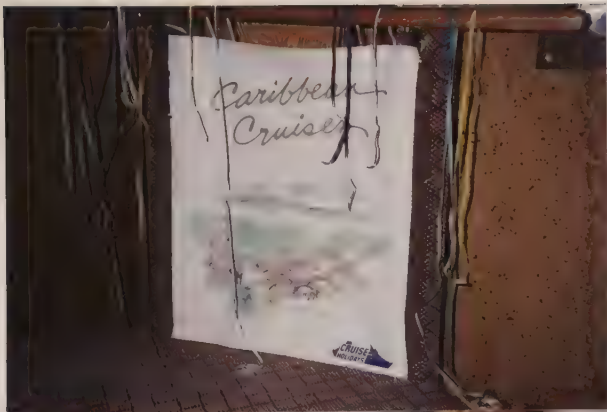

73 Record this score.

FRANKYE D. THOMPSON of Astoria has achieved immortality of a sort. Her entry is published in the current edition of "It Was a Dark and Stormy Night," a compilation of winners of the Buler-Lytton Fiction Contest. The aim of the contest is to write a humorously awful introductory passage to a story.

Here is Thompson's entry: "Once upon a time, a dark knight, probably from Ethiopia, where some knights are darker than others, went out on a dark night, probably in Alaska, where some knights are darker than others, and this knight simply disappeared into the dark night, so the king issued an edict stating: 'Dark knights go out on light nights and light knights go out on dark nights and no one goes anywhere if it is stormy!'"

Snacks must be eaten at the turn or in the clubhouse.

For safety reasons, young children who are accompanying parents, must stay by them at all times.

Golf play needs to be paced so that groups are directly behind each other. Discourage slow play - keep up.

Contact the pro shop regarding rule clarification. All other questions should be directed toward junior golf volunteers.

What is a marshal? A marshal is a person designated by the pro shop or junior golf committee to monitor play and make decisions on the course. Please follow their directives.

FROM THE MANAGER

October promises to be a busy month with several big golf events as well as many clubhouse activities. There are events planned for everyone including a Champagne Brunch, Dinner Theater, Fall Fashion Show and Halloween Party for kids and adults. All these events are very popular so you are urged to get your reservations early to avoid disappointment.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Remember that beginning this month until next Spring the dining room will be closed on Thursday evenings.

It is my annual pleasure to pass along thanks and plaudits to several ladies of the Club who, on their own time, help to bring a little bit of color to your Club. A generous amount of appreciation goes to Loretta Lemma and Anne Maize for the beautiful flowers and arrangements that you see throughout the facilities. Most of the flowers come from Loretta's own gardens and as you have seen she really knows how to take full advantage of size, shape and color. (13530) Thanks for your efforts!

HALLOWEEN HOE-DOWN

Friday, October 30

7:00 - 11:00 p.m.

Join your friends and sidekicks for a "Howling Good Time" as we present Halloween on the Range. D.J., Van Kennell, will provide all the music with anything you want to hear. Our wonderfully devilish kitchen crew has concocted some special treats for everyone's or everything's enjoyment which will be available most of the evening. Western or Halloween attire is encouraged by Chairmen Jim & Kelly Lanzarotta and John & Loretta Lemma. $8 per person includes gratuity, Goblin Punch, Food and Treats. Join the fun!

Congratulations to our winners in the Labor Day foursome event. ## THE SLOPE SYSTEM AND YOU

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON THE NEW USGA OGA SLOPE HANDICAP SYSTEM

Q: What is the USGA Slope System? My course is flat and has no slope

A: The Slope System is a refinement of the USGA Handicap System. It adjusts a player's handicap for the difficulty of the course he plays that day and has nothing to do with the slope of the land.

Q: But isn't that what the handicap system, along with course ratings, was designed to do?

A: Not quite. It didn't make your handicap "portable." If you were a 10-handicap player from Open Flats GC, you were also a 10-handicap player at Augusta National, Cypress Point or Muirfield Village. Furthermore, course ratings are based on an expert's game. For example, an expert should play a course rated at 70 in 70. He will play a course rated 75 in 75, or close to it. When an average player plays a difficult course, his score tends to rise more than the difference in course ratings. An 18-handicapper might shoot 105 on a course rated 75. The Slope System alleviates this inequity. It also deals with the problem of the golfer who builds his handicap at a very difficult course and plays well below it when he travels to easier courses.

Q: Okay. I know that a course rating of 70.4 means a scratch golfer is supposed to shoot 70. But what does this Slope Rating number 127 mean?

A: Oregon Golf Association courses have been re-rated according to their relative difficulty for all levels of golfers. The Slope number is the evaluation of the degree of difficulty of a golf course. The Slope number 113 is the average course Slope rating for both men and women. Any Slope number higher than 113 is more difficult. Any Slope number lower than 113 is less difficult. Therefore, a player from a course Slope Rated at 113 playing a course Slope Rated at 127 would get additional strokes. (Please see last page of this brochure). And a player coming from a 127 Slope Rated course to a 113 Slope-Rated course would receive fewer strokes.

Q: My course has a fairly high course rating but a relatively low Slope Rating and the Slope Rating from the back tees is lower than the middle tees. How can this be?

A: Again, you must remember the course rating is a reflection of the scratch golfer's ability, while the Slope Rating reflects the abilities of all levels of golfers. Rather than just rely upon yardage, Slope Rating also takes into account obstacles such as bunkers, trees, water hazards, topography, fairway conditions and widths, rough and recoverability, OBs, green target, green surface and psychology for both the scratch and bogey golfer. Obstacles pose different challenges to each group. For example, a fairway bunker at 200 yards off the tee is no problem for the scratch golfer — he's expected to hit his tee ball 240 + yards — but the bunker is right in the landing zone of the bogey golfer. It is the relationship between the scratch and bogey ratings that determines the "Slope" of a golf course.

Q: I see on my OGA Handicap Sheet that I have two handicaps. One is called a USGA Handicap and the other is called a Club Handicap. How come?

A: First, there are some new terms you must become familiar with. There are: USGA Handicap-Slope, Club (Home Course) Handicap, Course Handicap and Handicap Conversion Table. Let's take the Club, or Home Course, Handicap. This is a handicap to be used only at the golfer's home course. This handicap will be computed as in the past, nothing changes. Your USGA Handicap-Slope (which appears on your OGA Handicap Card and in the first box at the left under your name on the handicap sheets) is your Slope Handicap. It is to be used whenever you play at another course. It is your "portable" handicap. Course Handicap refers to the handicap you use that day at the course you are visiting and this handicap is obtained from the Handicap Conversion Table located in the Pro Shop or lockerroom.

Q: How much of this will I have to remember?

A: Very little. At your home course, both your Slope Handicap and Club Handicap will be posted. Remember, your Slope Handicap is also on your OGA Handicap Card. When visiting another course, you simply have to know your Slope Handicap.

Q: Can 9-hole Slope Handicaps be applied to the handicap conversion tables?

A: Yes, and in the same way as 18-hole handicaps. But remember, the USGA does not recognize 9-hole handicaps. Handicaps such as these, as in the past, are considered local, or home-club handicaps.

Q: Is it permitted to get an 18-hole score by combining two 9-hole scores?

A: Yes, provided there is not an intervening 18-hole round played. This is the same as in the past.

Q: What happens if my Slope Handicap is over the maximum of 36 (40 for women) and does not show on the Handicap Conversion Table?

A: Divide your handicap by 2. Refer to the chart for the number or both numbers if your handicap is an odd number. Find the one or two converted handicap numbers and add them together.

Q: I understand there will be "Away" score posting sheets at all OGA member clubs this year. What if I forget to post my score at the club I'm visiting?

A: Record your score on the Green Away posting sheet at your home club and supply the visiting course Slope Rating number.

Q: What handicap do I use as the basis for Equitable Stroke Control adjustment when I'm playing at an away course?

A: Use the converted handicap of the course you are playing that day.

Q: What if I play a course not involved with Slope? What handicap do I use?

A: Use your Club (home course) Handicap.

Q: What if a visitor comes from a non-slope area or course to my course? What handicap does he or she use?

A: That player has only one handicap, so that is the one he or she uses.

Q: A fellow club member and I have the same Slope Handicap but his Club Handicap is one stroke higher than mine. Why?

A: His Club Handicap has probably been rounded up because his scores are slightly higher than yours, indicating he is not quite as proficient as you.

Q: How can I check my Slope Handicap to make sure it's accurate?

A: Simply call the OGA if you think there's been an error.

Q: Why can't I check it myself, or have the handicap chairman check it for me?

A: The USGA Slope Handicap System is still listed as experimental. In order to maintain control over the USGA name and right to authorize the use of the system legally, the USGA must take appropriate measures to safeguard the confidentiality of the system. At such a time as the USGA adopts the system as the official USGA system nation-wide (probably in 1987), a decision will then be made on the release to the general public of the system.

Q: How many Associations will be using this system?

A: The Slope system will be used by 40 Associations in 1986.

Q: Is any other Association in the Northwest using the Slope system?

A: Yes. The Pacific Northwest Golf Association, Idaho and Nevada Golf Associations and the Northern California Women's Golf Association.

Q: Can I turn in a score shot in a non-Slope state, or from a non-member OGA course?

A: Yes. You may post the adjusted score, the course rating and the average Slope Rating of 113. This is not completely accurate, but it is better than not posting any score. Post this score on the Green Away Sheet.

Q: I don't play at any course but my home course. What do I need to know about the Slope System?

A: Not much. You will always play with your Club Handicap. However, if you invite a member from another club, he'll be using his Slope Handicap as adjusted according to the Handicap Conversion Table so that you can have a fair and equitable game.

Q: To what handicap does the USGA maximum limit of 36 for men and 40 for women apply?

A: It applies to your USGA Handicap-Slope. Course converted handicaps may be above or below these maximums depending on the Slope Rating of the course.

Q: I sometimes play from the Back tees on my home course and not my usual Middle tees. How does the Slope Handicap work in this instance?

A: Technically, each set of tees — Back, Middle and Forward — are a different golf course, even on your home course. Each set of tees has a Slope Rating (see your Handicap Conversion Table in your Pro Shop). Therefore, your Club Handicap would not be accurate (just as it is not accurate now) from the Back tees, or Forward tees. Thus, the Back tees would become an "away" course. You would use your USGA Handicap-Slope and consult the Handicap Conversion Table to see the strokes received that day. You would then post your adjusted score on the Green Away Sheet at your club, along with the Slope Rating for the Back tees.

Q: What are the lowest and highest Slope Rated courses?

A: The lowest Slope Rating is 55, the highest, 155.

The Portable Handicap

Below is a chart that helps show how your USGA HANDICAP — SLOPE works when playing at an away course.

As an example, golfer Sandy Bunker sees on his OGA handicap card that he is an 18 handicap. Sandy's buddy, Jim Naysium, a 21-handicapper, is joining him on a visit to an out-of-town club. When they get to Faraway Hills GC, they check in the Pro Shop and see the White tees they'll be playing from are slope-rated at 127. In the lefthand column of the chart they locate their respective handicaps. Under the next column which says "Slope 127" they see that Sandy's 18 handicap will be 20 that day, and Jim's 21 handicap will be 24. The next day they travel to Monster Mountain GC, which is slope-rated at 132 (far right column in example below). Sandy's 18 handicap is now 21 and Jim's 21 has become a 25.

Obviously, Monster Mountain is tougher than Faraway Hills because both golfers received one more stroke — Sandy was 20 at Faraway and 21 at Monster. But you will also note that Sandy must give Jim four strokes — not three — at Monster Mountain. Since Jim is not quite as good a player as Sandy, playing Monster Mountain will be a little harder for him and he'll receive one additional stroke.

Conversely, had Sandy and Jim gone to an easier course, one slope-rated at 100, Sandy's 18 handicap would have become 16 and Jim's 21 would drop to 19.

The important things to remember, when playing at any course other than your home course, are — 1.) Your OGA/USGA handicap and, 2.) Be sure to check the handicap conversion chart at the course you are visiting.
